Hmm..
So you guys are from Hongmoon Clan huh?

Here you guys are
You're the grand daughter of The Grand Master Su Jung
I don't know who this feller is next to ya

Was the rumours true? Did Hongmoon clan really fall?
Every disciples were done over?
Yes

I can't believe it..
The rumours were true afterall..

This place... Isn't actually a part of Hongmoon clan
We just collect information of what happens in murim and sell it

Informants?

Yup.
We collect information and sell it.

We collect information of what happens inside and outside of murim and sell it to whoever offers the highest However...

We've been collecting information as just a ordinary Chinese Restaurant for 10 years... But this is the first time it's been so serious.

These mysterious monsters are attacking everywhere right now.

Now that the Hongmoon Clan is destroyed, District No-Won is gone for good.

District Do-Bong and Gang Dong is being attacked as well

Long time ago there were some individuals that wanted to take over the world with the help of multiple corrupted clans

But this is the first time they've killed and kidnapped without some sort of warning

We've been trying to collect information on them but to no avail, it's almost as if they're invisible

And even the reports say all of the assassins are unidentifiable. It's more likely that they're beasts or robots that're just being controlled.

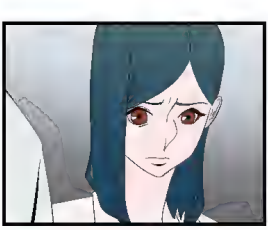
Isn't there something you guys can do? Like kill all those robot guys

Bring more reinforcements and other masters and...

Hmm...

To begin with Hongmoon Clan was never a sort of clan to fall like that
They were known as the best clan in korea
However... Along with Hongmoon Clan there were Multiple Clans and Families that decided to put a fatal rule on themselves...

Most likely... They fell without even fighting properly...



Hongmoon Clan was part of a group that collected the best and the brightest students...
They were a Elite Clan of sort...

However... There was an incident
Because of this incident anyone who wanted to join the Hongmoon Clan was forced to drink a porson called 'Shin Sun Pae'
TLN: It's a fantasy drug I couldn't translate it

Shin Sun Pae is...

Hongmoon Clan was also considered a "Good Sect" of the Murim Families.
That's why they made a rule upon themselves, 'We do not interfere with average peoples lives.'

The reason why they put that type of rule upon themselves is because of an incident long ago that tore the families into multiple different groups, some individuals had tried to rule the world with the power they had

So being part of the good sect Hongmoon Clan's masters and its disciples decided to drink the poison Shin Sun Pae and forbed any usage of Ki

If there was a case where one had to use it the elders of each clans would come together to talk and distribute the antidote

That's why clans fell so quickly without the elders being able to react quick enough to distribute the antidote

Even the greatest masters were kidnapped or killed without using a hint of their power

And the clan we had trusted the most fell without using a hint of their ki.
And now there are only two left...

Sigh...
Even the mighty Hongmoon Clan falls on this day.

덜컥!
Ah...!

H...Hey! Where're you going?

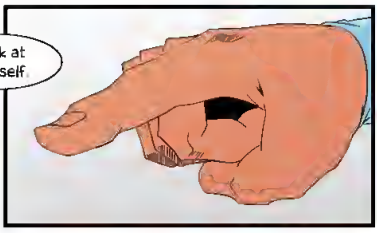
There isn't many people in the world that can say they have a 500 year old ki!

Look at yourself.



Daehyeop you currently possess so much power it's seeping out of you at this very moment

On top of it there isn't anyone from murim that can move that ancient ki around in the current situation we're in.

That means the Ki is yours and yours alone Daehyeop!

This is not my Ki! This is the Hongmoon Clan's...

I know that too well Daehyeop The only person with that Ki in korea was that old man afterall

However Daehyeop! You don't need to follow the footsteps that the Grand master took wha?!

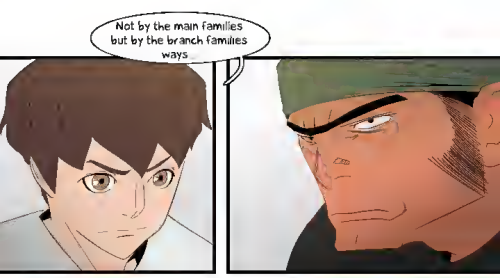
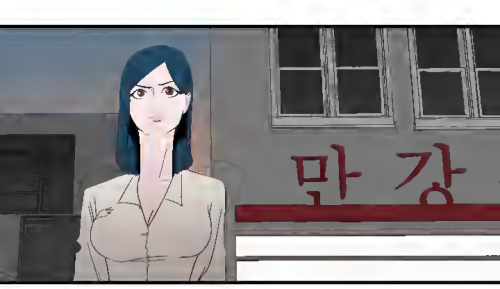
What're you saying...
The Murim is currently thrown into chaos by these mysterious robot figures... however the only people that can oppose them is currently the people that never took the poison
The branch families and their clans
And with your 500 year old ki!
If you study underneath their teachings
You could throw the balance off its scale! and Daehyeop you will stand your place as the proper owner of that ki!
Actually right now the branch families are safer bet!
This will definitely be useful to you Daehyeop!
I have no doubt that you will become the greatest master in all of murim.
That's why we're trying to help you in hopes that you will remember us in the future!

The branch clans are safer
You think I should go to branch clans



Not by the main families but by the branch families ways



맛 강

Scuse me

They want ya inside right now

My goodness! Daehyeop!!
I've done a terrible deed to you!!

I never expected that you'd think of righteousness before your own greed I've judged you wrongfully!
I am so sincerely sorry!

Stop, stop this already!
get up!
Daehyeop!!! T_T

What're ye guys doin?! Brin out th' items!
Daehyeops waitin' too long!

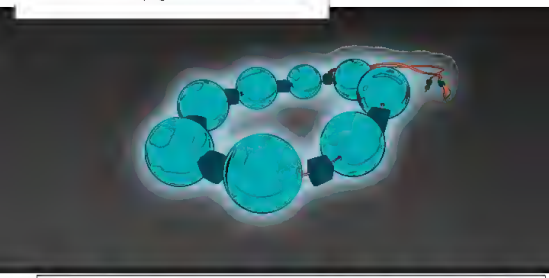
Now...

These are our gifts to you.
I know it may not be much, but please think of it as a form of respect to you.

Please accept our gifts!

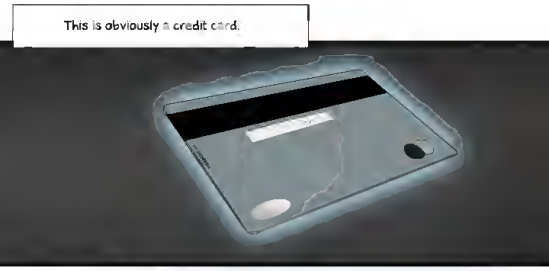
Daehyeop Aran!

This jade bracelet is a Holy Artifact that we've been keeping close watch on.



If you wear it you can sleep for 2 hours and act as if you've slept 12!
And not only that you'll have endless stamina that will last you for hours on end.

This is obviously a credit card.



It's custom designed by us and it's completely untrackable, it should have about 5 million won in there so please use it wisely.

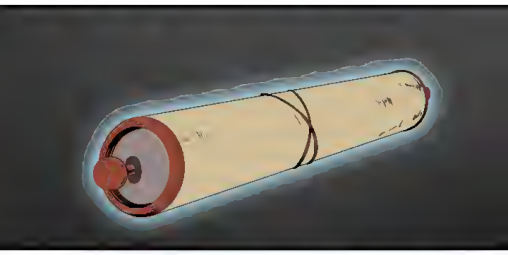
This is what you've requested a short while ago, it's a map to all the hongmoon clans divisions that still stands to fight.



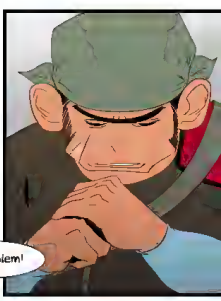
We've chosen locations that're friendly and safe to rest for a while.

I know it may not be much, but I hope you take our gifts!

Daehyeop!

N..no thank you for your gifts... we didn't need so much...

Thank you.



No problem!

I hopes in the future you will come visit us again.

We will greet you with our utmost respect!

Hmm...

Did you need to give him so much?

Even with the 500 year KI he's still a kid

He maybe a kid now, but soon he'll become a master no one will be able to defy

We can think of it as a investment for the future

B...But

He didn't even listen to our reccomendations, I think he's more or less a stupid kid who doesn't know what he got himself mixed into

A stupid kid huh

I'm not so sure about that

When I told him to go to the Branch clans that "stupid kid's" eyes changed

I can't go to Branch families I'm sorry
The Ki I currently possess is not mine, on top of it the companion I came with is the grand daughter of the Grand Master.

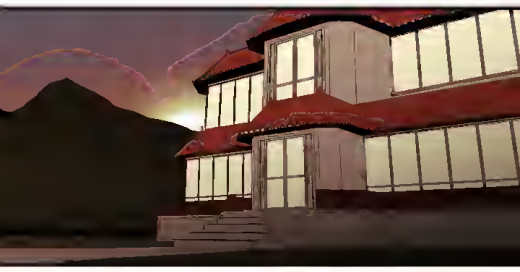
"Yet"?

That's not something a clueless kid should say.

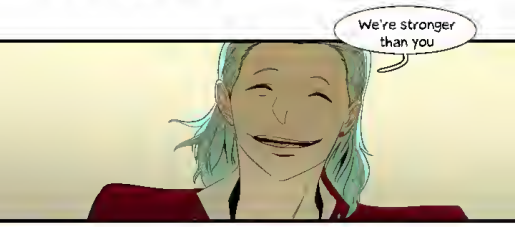
If you had any plans of returning that Ki you couldn't say something as careless as "yet"!

That kid is going to dive into whatever family fits him best.

And he probably hasn't realized what consequences that will bring to him!



Hehehe
콰드득
Weak aren't you?
We didn't drink that poison that makes us so we can't use ki



We're stronger than you

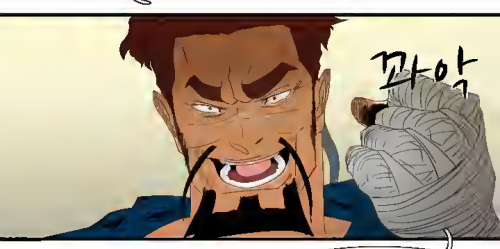
Kyaak!
콰지직!

털썩

Huh? It's dead

HAHAHA!
You guys cleaned em out huh!

Now they're gonna realize they can't send small fries to deal with us.



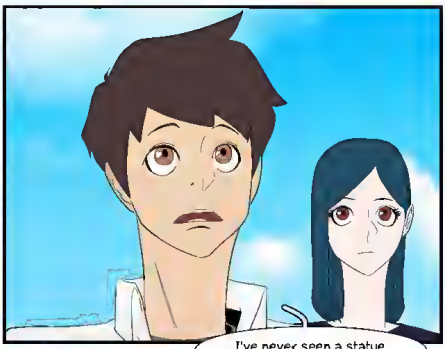
Let em mess with the main family a little more!

We'll go kill all those robots and the main family!

We don't want to wait!

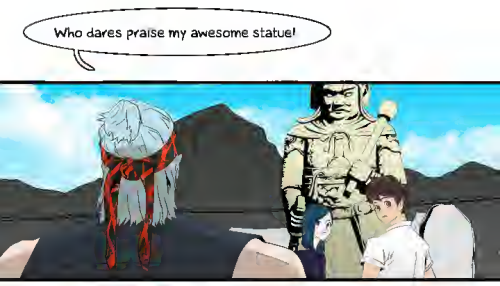
But the idea isn't too bad...
Should go go visit the Rock Smith?

Wow...
Would ya look at the size of that statue
인형석재



I've never seen a statue this big!

Who dares!
깔짝



Who dares praise my awesome statue!
It makes me feel good!

But you guys look suspicious!
Stop praising me and tell me who ya guys are!

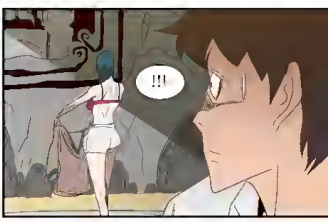
From this point I'll train you guys to be strong so you'll be able to protect that ki
My first priority takes place in taking care of the mess that old man left behind

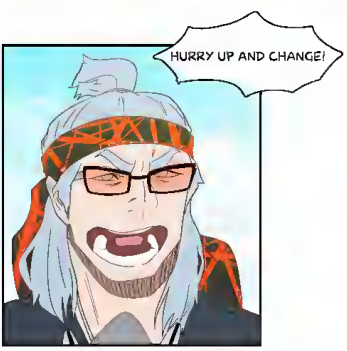
Hey Ki Balloon, learn how to control the flow of ki first

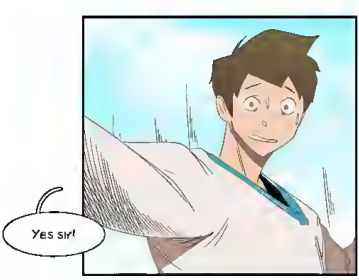
Su Jung you will train Aran in basic combats

Change up!
We're starting now~!

That guy from the restaurant...
Why did you have us come to a place like this...







Sooner or later you will come across assassins that have come to kill you.

When that time comes you will fight and run away.

Hopefully you learn with your heart and mind.

Especially you Ki Balloon!
You're at a state where if I hurt you, you'd explode all over the place!

If we don't teach you to properly control the flow of that Ki, you could be eating and BANG!

While you're sleeping and you scratch your legs BANG! Got it?

Heek..

Do you know how to fight?
Not at all!

You better be pre-pared!
The people you will be fighting from now on has been fighting for their entire life!

From getting hit to hitting your enemy I will teach you full course!

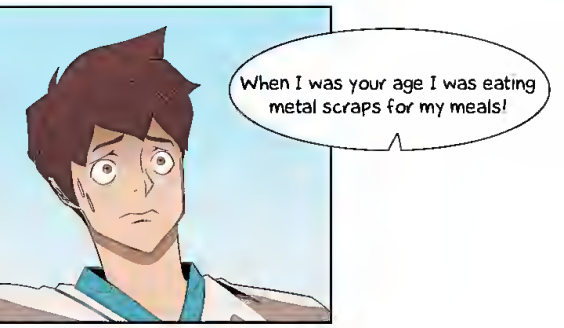
If I tell ya to do it do it ya idiot!
It should be considered weird that someone with 500 year old ki inside them can't even break this tiny rock!



When I was your age I was eating metal scraps for my meals!

And I'll repeat again, you have to train how to control the flow of that ki inside your stomach right now.
Otherwise it'll just be a matter of time before you explode.

Now come forth!

Just think of your energy being collected towards your fist, you have so much ki flowing out of you it shouldn't be that hard.

The Grand Masters 500 year old Ki was representation of true power.

Just like how water changes shape based on what vessle it's contained in.

With the two equal force of Ki depending on who wields it, it could mean the worlds difference in terms of power.

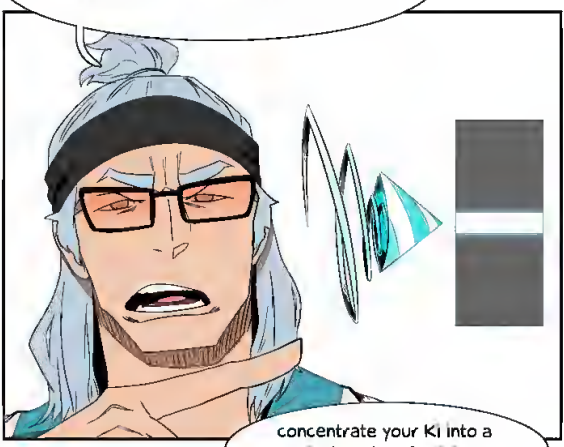
The Ki that Grand Master carefully treaded and purified has the quality and the element that the main family wants!

Ah...

The pure Ki that the grand master left behind doesn't require the concentration nor does it have unnecessary destructive power!

The Grand Master had that inside of him for his entire life, so the trait of the Ki is that of the Grand Master himself.

Do you understand? Just think of it as a needle penetrating a tofu.



concentrate your Ki into a single point of origin and make it explode.

Since the Ki has that quality already built into it, you should be able to use the Grand Masters technique with ease.

You can't expect the full strength like that of the monster old man

however even if you brought out 10% of the grand masters power it should be sufficient enough to protect you

Just like what I did here, concentrate your power into a single point.
Alright?
If you mess up I'll give you a good beating.
If you poke a bunch of holes into it I'll hit you too.
Now ready your stance!
Start!

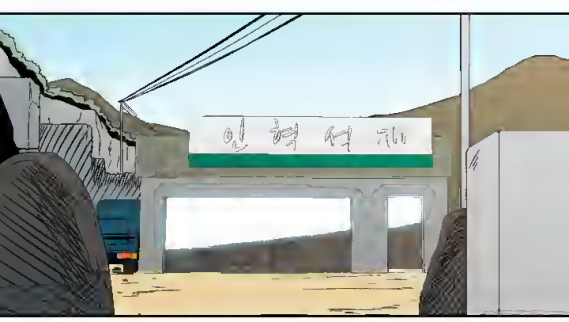
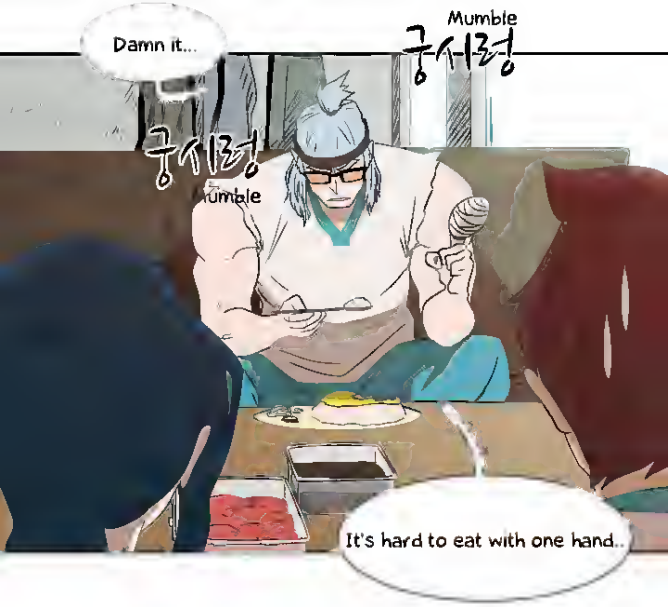
Ya little brat ..!!
Ya little brat!!





Damn it...

궁시렁
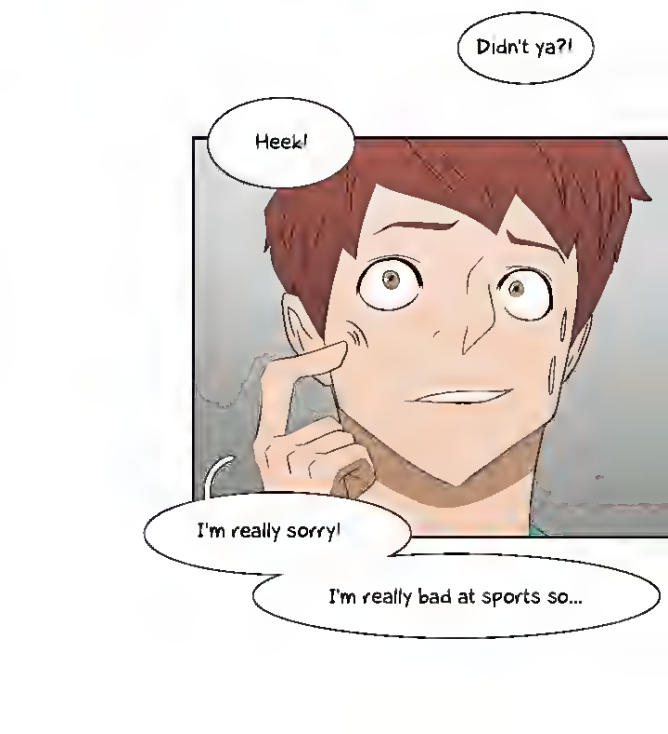
Mumble
It's hard to eat with one hand..

This is thanks to a gangster with 500 year old ki...
I told him to hit a statue and hit critically hit my fingers



Didn't ya?!
Heek!
I'm really sorry!
I'm really bad at sports so...

You're bad at sports so next time you'll hit my face with that 500 year old ki huh?!

Looks like my jaws are going to be broken tonight!!

Heeek...

I'll do better from now on!!

Let's put aside that you hit my fingers, but your strike sucked!

Half of the hit went into my fingers.

And the other went to the statue.

The rocks were being splintering all over the place like a shot gun! I told you to concentrate on one spot too,

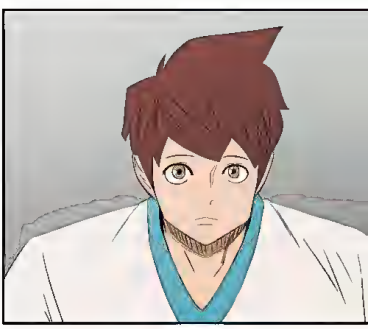
You didn't concentrate your Ki let alone your power!

The Grand Masters Ki has the best quality and the element it requires for you to perfect martial arts,

So with little training you should see vast results!

We need to surface that potential as soon as possible, so practice!
Eat and practice again!

Yes I understand.



What're you doing?

Huh?
Oh... well... I was...

Did you come out for some fresh air?
You were scolded by the Rock Smithie so you're pretty angry right now huh?
N... No! It's nothing like that. I hit Mister Rock Smith's hand so I was at fault.
I thought I was punished too little for what I had done to his hands
I thought I hit the statue properly but...
Something was weird. Like something was off...
Was this the statue you broke?
Ah, Yeah ... It's the statue I broke.

.... Huh?
That's really weird it looks like it was cut apart by something sharp... Like a extremely fine blade .
Wait give it to me.
Huh?
.... Are you sure you hit this rock? If you were using Grand Fathers Ki it should never break apart like this... ?
This is...
Huh? What?

weird... I've never seen this happen before...
For statue to break like this...

Y.. You're right

I don't know what's going on why did it get cut like this?

Like I said I'm really bad with sports!

It's definitely clear that the Ki that this Aran kid holds is that of the Grand Masters.

When using martial arts it should've shown itself more naturally and alot stronger.

500 Year old Pure Ki
The Ki that the Grand Master spent his entire life purifying....

took on a completely different form,
something that I had never seen before.

Not out of inexperience ...
But more like foreign substance...

It should be impossible that the Ki took on a completely different element within few weeks of that kid holding it.
The Grand Master spend his entire life purifying that Ki.

But .. The way he used the ki wasn't that of main family.

More... Branch?

... No at a glance it may look like techniques that the branch family uses but...

Aran's technique never completely finished

Because he hit my hand accidentally
the power never completely revealed itself

But the Ki I felt from Aran's hands were not that of Main families

That Ki didn't try to break that rock...
It tried to "Slice" that rock apart...

That energy in Aran's hands spread like knives and tried to dig through that statue...

That form of technique is....

is more towards that of Demonic Arts...

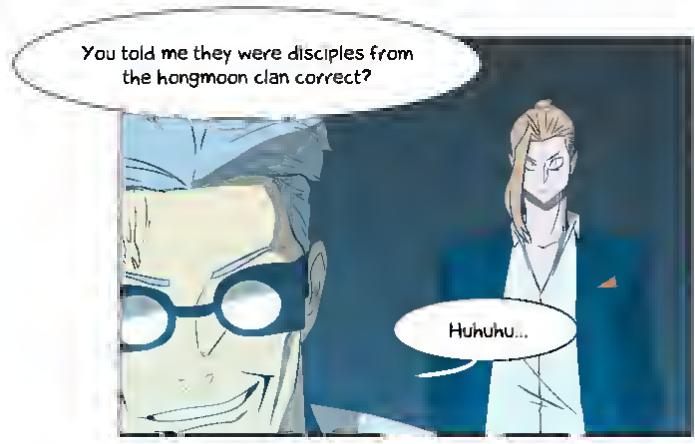
I really want to tear them apart and modify them but...



You told me they were disciples from the hongmoon clan correct?
Huhuhu...

I can't waste precious samples like that away can I now....
I should study them a little further before cutting them apart.
How much is their physical resistance..
How much do they have to be damaged before being irreparable?

What is their resistance against heat and cold ...

What're you thinking about?

Could it be that you're feeling sympathy for those that betrayed you and left you to die?
Right now?

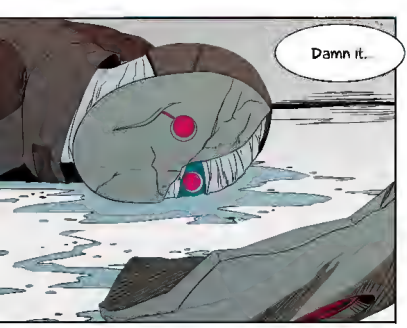
Of course not.
I was just thinking about how I used to call these pathetic people my brothers and sisters.

Yes, embrace your hatred.
The one that's going to be leading my army should not be as weak as to feel emotions.

There's no such thing as stopping in middle of taking revenge.
If you've sworn yourself to avenge, you cannot stop until it is finished.

You should not stop.

Ugh...



Damn it.

Is this how I die...

How many days has it been?
I cannot feel my arms anymore.

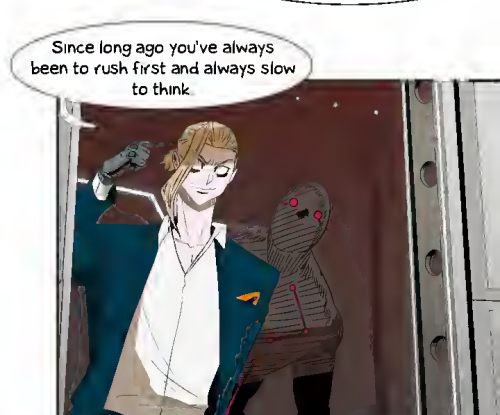
Haa~
You're holding out as expected, Brother Ju Chang

Kugh!!
Scorpion!!
You don't have to scream that loud
I can hear you perfectly fine
Idiot brother of mine.

You dirty betrayer!!
Do not ridicule me any further with these tricks!

If you're going to kill me do it now!!
Don't send your lackys one by one and just fight me fair and square!

Hehehe...
I'm not going to be the one to kill you.
Idiot brother of mine... You still haven't gotten it through your thick skull have you..



Since long ago you've always been to rush first and always slow to think

You will face these robots until the moment of your death.
When I attacked the Dojo I used the lowest specs of these robots...
What are these robots?
From where did you find these monsters from?!
You don't need to know—
You'll probably die today without passing the night.

Not only did you people destroy my Ki-Center you've also tried to destroy my body.
Not only that you guys threw me off the cliff just to make sure I was dead.

I'll do anything to destroy all of you!
And in order to do that I've met just the right person.

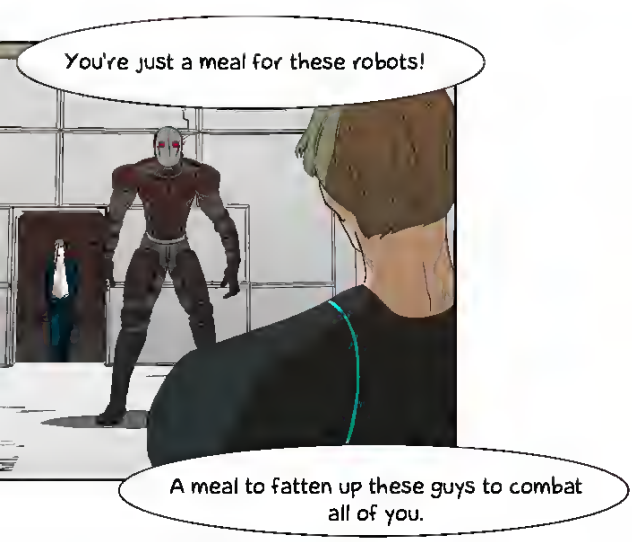
Everything happend the way it did because of what you caused!
You've killed our father and destroyed our clan is that not sufficient enough for you?!

Yes! It's not enough!
It's far too insufficient for me!

I won't rest until every last hypocrites paid their ultimate price!
And Hongmoon Clan was just the beginning!
Main family, Branch family I don't care they're all dead!
I now hold the power to do so in my hands!
I want every last person in Murim to fall and die!
Just like me!
You're foolish...
Brother Scorpion, You are underestimating the people of Murim far too much...

Hmph!
It is you who are underestimating us.
Every last person in Murim will die by my hands before they even know who we are!

Conquering the world of murim is just one of my many plans to come!
We are going to use every last one of your kind as stepping stones to gain power and aim for greater goals.



You're just a meal for these robots!
A meal to fatten up these guys to combat all of you.

You're out of your mind Brother Scorpion.
People of Murim will not stand by and watch you
You will ultimately face demise in your future.

Let's see if those words of yours will come true with your own eyes.

What does that mean?

Hehehe...

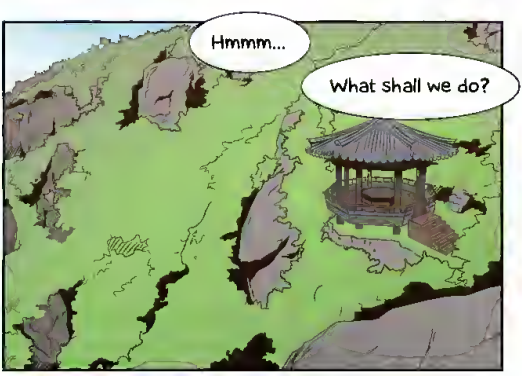
With the data I collected from those puppets I input all your moves into that one...

Even your habits, I've copied every last one of your moves into that robot!
How will you face your shadow?
Hahaha. Hahahahahahaha!



Hmmm...
What shall we do?

It looks like we must distribute the antidote.

Why else have the elders come for a meeting?

News of Hongmoon Clans Grand Master's death has been confirmed, this is no ordinary matter.

This is a big strike against our family.

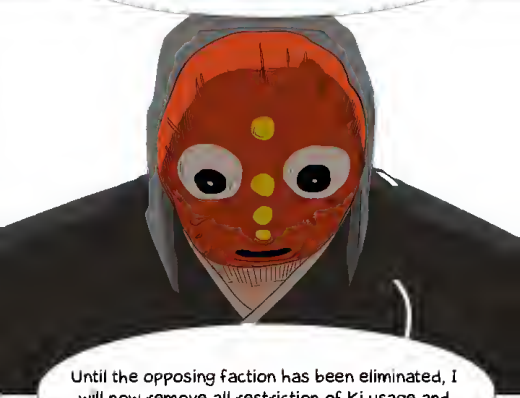
Did the leader of the branch have a 300 year old Ki?

Their activities have been seen, we must keep an eye on them.

Then... I take it as all the elders have come to the same conclusion.

As the power invested in me as the Grand Elder, I will distribute the Antidote to the poison Shin Sun Pae.

For the sake of our families and the safety of our future, we must defend our selves against the opposing faction



Until the opposing faction has been eliminated, I will now remove all restriction of Ki usage and will distribute antidotes to 100 Clans

Hmm?
A Package?

No package should come to this mountain...
Could it be..

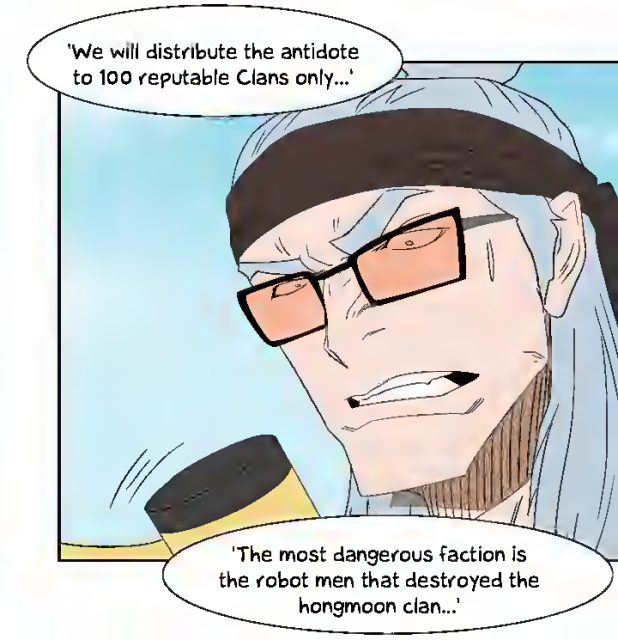
Did those old geezers have a meeting?

They did!
It's a package from the Murim alliance.
Then this is...

解
Antidote to Shin Sun Pae!

Those slow geezers finally came to a conclusion.
Looks like the situation is more dire then I thought.

.... Until the safety of Murim world comes again we remove the restriction on Ki usage.'
'Do not be seen by the eyes of men and only use your ki on the direst of situations.



'We will distribute the antidote to 100 reputable Clans only...'
'The most dangerous faction is the robot men that destroyed the hongmoon clan...'

'The second most dangerous faction is the branch families that seems to be connected to the robots...'

TLN : Everything here has just been translated into the text boxes.

The Branch Families?

These old geezers! They still haven't gotten their head out of the water!

It's not enough that they only distributed 100 antidotes and now they marked the branch families as enemies?

If the murim world fights internally we'll all just be devoured!

Stupid geezers... This is not the time to be picking fight with the branch families!

Huaa~

The air is good here huh?
I smell mountain.

It was hard climbing that mountain.
I heard there was a geezer here...

Papa...
Told us to greet you Rock smith.
Are you rock smith?
Your husk looks young.
But you can't fool our eyes.
Papa told us...
To ask you to join the branch families.
He told me to kill you if you refused.

The father of these two wants me to join their faction.

Our family is prepared.

If Rock Smith helps we'll be even stronger.

Hey Hey! I told you to stop movin!

If you move right now you might die!

Heeeek!

When you guys came to me do you remember my face after you guys told me all of Grand Master's Ki is inside of you?

You were like...

Grr.... Raaahhh!! And showed your frustration.

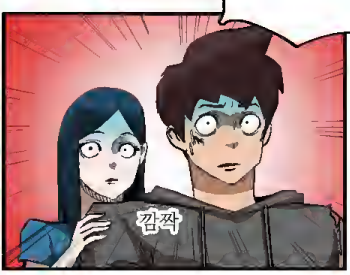
R....Right..

Anyways, the reason why I became frustrated is because your life is at the stake here!

M... My life?!?!?

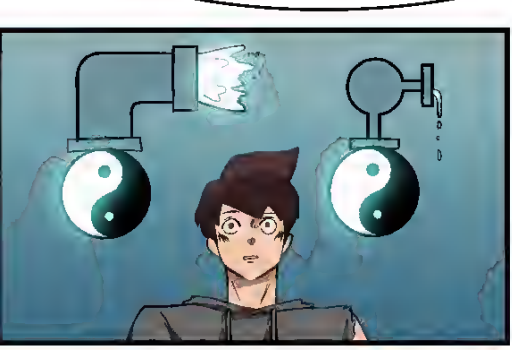


The people of Murim train their bodies and hone their spirit in order to increase their capacity to hold greater Ki,

And not only that they've adapted to flowing Ki around their body like that of liquid, so their bodies are balanced.

However average people never honed their body let alone in the arts of Ki so you're like a narrow pipe trying to gurge out great power.

The average body can't hold that much Ki

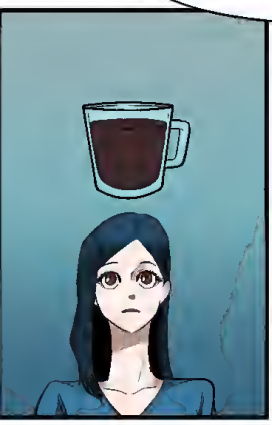


And you have one of the greatest Grand Masters Ki. There is probably only three people in existance with that old of Ki residing in their bodies

Do you realize how dangerous this is?

If Su Jung's Ki was that of a Mug holding a cup of coffee ..

Your Ki who belongs to the Grand Master is that of a Magma held back by a Balloon



Your Ki might go against you and kill you suddenly!

Grand Master's Ki was never ment to be held in a body like that, it's something that even people of murim is afraid of..

Grand Master... Probably had his reason .. to do what he did..

Th .. That's...

Well! It can't be only blamed on the Grand Master, I did use Branch Arts in order to bring out that vast Ki afterall, that's the reason why you're like that.

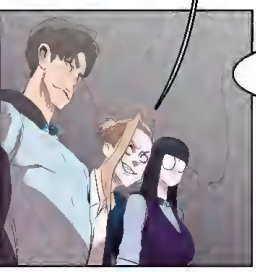
Sfx: Wack!

Sfx: Steps closer

What's going on?! Why did the Hongmoon Clan betray us?! What do they want?!

How dare you betray the Murim and attack us!

I'm just hunting you guys down with these guys.



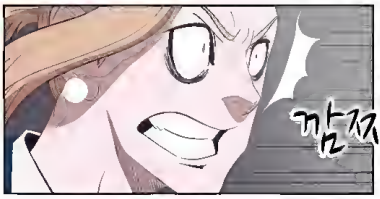
Bastards!

You Bastards!!!

Sfx: Floating

Impossible! I thought you guys couldn't use your Ki because of Shin Sun Pae!!

Sfx : Surprised

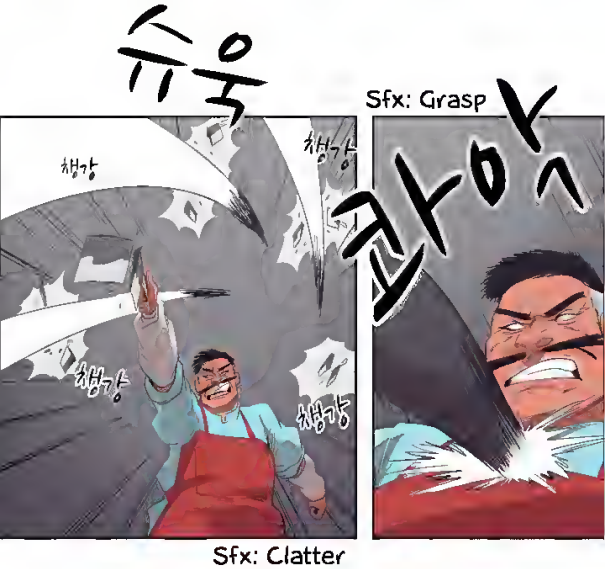


Sfx: Kuooooooooo

Sfx: Hiyaaaa

Sfx: Paaa!

Sfx: Jump



Sfx: Grasp

Sfx: Clatter

Ughh.. Ju Chang!!

Target capture complete

Hahaha! Do you see?! They only listen to me!

But how can you guys use your Ki?

Sfx: Ugh

Were you prepared for death?

No it doesn't look like it.

As expected.

Sfx: Tap

Looks like the elders decided to distribute the antidote.

That's right.

Sfx: Drop

스륵

Hehe looks like those slow geezers finally started moving, I wonder if they're scared.

Sfx: Whack

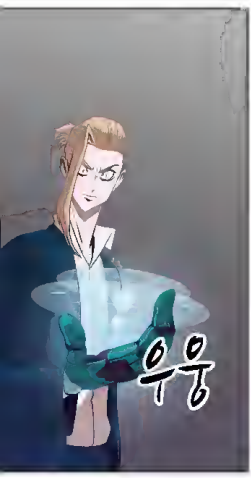
Hehehe do you see my friends?

You'll become my underling too!

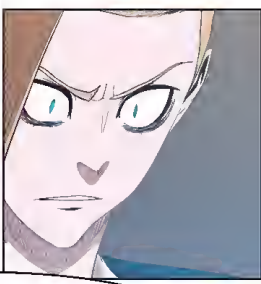
Sfx: Falls

Uggh..



Sfx: Voom

What happend?



The Elders have started moving it'll be troublesome from now on.

How troublesome?

The people of murim normally hide in plain sight avoiding any human contact whatsoever, but the thing that made them from trying to take over the world is a poison called Shin Sun Pae

It's a very delicate poison designed to kill anyone that uses Ki over their limits

And it looks like the elders have distributed the antidote to the poison

This means that the Elder no longer cares for their identities and telling the clans to fight us in broad day light

This is the real beginning

The subjects you're looking for, beings with great energy and power will start coming out in broad day light to start fighting us.

The robots may not be enough for us anymore

When it becomes too much for the robots I'll give it a thought until then make good use of those puppets I gave you.

Keep hunting, I need more test subjects.
